II. MEMBERSHIP DUES

Membership dues are $150.00 per review or journal (not school) per academic year. Membership in the National Conference of Law Reviews offers your law review or journal the prestige and opportunity to interact with other law reviews and journals in the United States and build valuable networking relationships. To apply for membership in the NCLR for the 2011-2012 school year, please fill out this form and submit it with payment to ensure your payment is applied to your review or journal's membership.

The majority of your annual membership dues is given to the Host Review to cover costs of organizing the Annual Conference. The remaining portion of your annual membership dues covers NCLR's operational costs. Annual membership dues are separate from the conference registration fee, which goes directly and entirely to the Host Review. Paying your annual membership dues is a prerequisite to attending the Annual Conference and helps ensure that each Annual Conference is a success. If you have any questions regarding NCLR membership, please send them to Beth Hearn, NCLR President, at nclr@nclrlaw.com.

III. REMITTANCE

Make checks payable to: The National Conference of Law Reviews, Inc.

Mail this form, along with your membership dues payment to:

National Conference of Law Reviews, Inc.
Texas Wesleyan University School of Law
1515 Commerce Street
Forth Worth, TX 76102

Note: Each journal must submit a separate form.

If your journal or law review attended last year's conference and did not pay last year's dues, it is not too late to submit your payment. The funds will be appropriately disbursed to last year's Host Review. Please download the appropriate form from www.ncrlaw.com and return it as directed.
